The ASUNM Advocacy Scholarship will serve as an avenue for both students, as well as members of ASUNM to bring light to major issues that students encounter on campus on a daily basis, and how they themselves are working to improve it. The recipient of this scholarship will have their essay sent to the President of the University, Dean of Students, Director of Student Activities, and the members of the ASUNM Senate.

ASUNM is awarding four (4) one-thousand-dollar ($1,000) scholarships to deserving University of New Mexico Undergraduates that are selected by the ASUNM Scholarship Committee and meet the criteria below:

1. Any student applying for the scholarship must at the time of application and award be an undergraduate or a non-degree student who has not received a baccalaureate degree. Any applicant must be a full-time student at the University of New Mexico, with at least twelve (12) completed credit hours during either the spring, summer, or fall semesters prior to application, and have at least a 2.5 cumulative grade point average at both the time of application and award.
2. All ASUNM officials (elected or appointed), employees, and agents of ASUNM are prohibited from applying for and/or receiving these scholarships.
3. All Applications must be returned to the ASUNM Office (SUB Room 1016) no later than 5:00 P.M. on Monday, February 24th, 2020.
4. The recipient of this scholarship will have their essay sent to the President of the University, Dean of Students, Director of Student Activities, and the members of the ASUNM Senate. If your essay shares any alleged misbehavior, it could result in reports to the Office of Equal Opportunity or the Dean of Students Office.
