2) Preliminary Business
   a. ASUNM Vice President’s Opening Remarks:
      i. Hello everyone. We typically don’t have a senate meeting. Please speak up and stay involved. I hope you have fun.
   b. ASUNM President’s Report:
      i. Welcome to ASUNM. Today we finished the retreat. In the padfolios there is a president office initiatives list. Lobo Spirit build dates are starting on Monday, August 23rd. We still have open positions in ASUNM. We have some open Boards and Committees currently. Student Fee Review Board still has open positions. Have a successful year.
   c. Boards and Committees
      i. There are still open Boards and Committees
   d. Public Comment
      i. Ryan Lindquist: Anytime a legislative body gets together you cannot be in quorum in one place outside of meeting. When in numbers that creates a quorum. There are quorum notices that one can put out in compliance to OMA. IPRA if you use your UNM email address the public can request to see these emails. When discussing legislation, people, etc. It is recommended to keep it out of email. It is recommended to talk face to face. I want to make sure everyone is aware as public officials.

e. ASUNM Senators
   i. Senator Harper: Thank you to everyone for coming to meeting and starting the year off well. Feel Free to ask me questions related to legislation.

3) Business
   a. Approval of Vice-Presidential Appointed Senators MOTION to approve vice presidential appointed senators has been passed. MOTION to approve the committee of the whole has been passed. Chair entertains the motion to move out of parliamentary procedure. MOTION passes. Begins the interviewing of the approved appointments.
      i. Adela Borjas
         Borjas is able to fill her term. She has no conflicts for meeting times and believes that she has been fairly hired. She applied because of her enjoyment of leadership as well as to give representation to the underrepresented (Mexican Americans). She wants to reach out through the bylaws to multiple organizations. Her goals include respecting bylaws, starting a grant and/or scholarship for students based in technology, and helping immigrants/illegal immigrant students complete their studies. She believes can benefit ASUNM through promoting ASUNM with outreach and appointments and increased advertising.

      ii. Heather Ferrell
         She is able to fill her term and doesn’t have conflicts that interrupt the position. There was no hiring conflicts or conflicts of interests. Ferrell started out in ELL with interested in the finance section. She would like to be a voice for the students and deal with behind-the-scenes finances. She wants to implement environmentally friendly suggestions and believes it’s important to show up and advertise events. Ferrell is interested in marketing towards freshman and sophomores. She wants to progress ASUNM by joining and reaching out to a lot of groups to create exposure and a better community. Her definition of a successful senator is someone who excels in school, is a voice and markets to students, and is willing to put in the time.

      iii. Jackson Zinsmeyer
He is able to fill term. There are not any conflicts pertaining to the position, time, hiring, or conflicts of interest. Zinmeyer wants to be involved for the student body and make UNM and ASUNM a better place. His goals include helping UNM become more sustainable. He touches on E-waste as well as affordability. His goals for transition period include providing students with in-person and virtual office hours as well as providing resources for students and taking proper care of them. He believes that he is able to handle controversy and diverse personalities. He states that the position will push his understanding of UNM and Albuquerque altogether.

The chair entertains the MOTION to move back into parliamentary procedure. MOTION passes.

The chair looks favorable on the MOTION to end committee as a whole. MOTION is passed.

Carrillo relinquishes the gavel.

Senator Griego makes a sweeping MOTION to approve all appointment senators. MOTION passes.

The approval of the vice senators has been passed.
